

Toulouse is also known as la ville rose, thanks to the pinky hue of the bricks used in much of the city's architecture. The heart of Occitan culture, this southern city is a wonderful location in which to experience the French art of living, and is perfect for inspiring a passion for all things French in your students.

The city of Toulouse is typically French, with numerous cultural activities that are ideal for students looking to enhance their international knowledge and skills. We will make sure that your students see the side of Toulouse that tourists often miss. Marathon Travel steeps you into the rich culture of the region - it's food, art, sport and natural beauty ensuring that your pupils become entwined to the inspiring local French culture.
