

Kilmacurragh Gardens, Wicklow

Departure

10.30 We will depart from the agreed pick up point with our luxury coach and experienced guide. Enjoy a morning break for hot tea / coffee and freshly made scones en route to your first stop.

Kilmacurragh Gardens

The National Botanic Gardens in Kilmacurragh, an outpost of the Glasnevin Gardens, comprises of the remnants of a large 18th century estate located in Kilbride in East Wicklow. Planted during the 19th century, it features a spectacular collection of rhododendrons that flower from early springtime. The different soil and climatic conditions at Kilmacurragh resulted in many spectacular specimens succeeding there where it wasn't possible in other areas. Visitors will enjoy Rhododendron Avenue, the Double Herbaceous borders, the Yew Walk and the Oak Avenue and much, much more.

Gorey

Gorey is the perfect location for a sport of afternoon shopping, with independent boutiques where you can buy occasion wear from top Irish and European labels and a shopping centre ensures you can purchase those must have items!
