

Knock Shrine

Departure

08.30 We will depart from the agreed pick up point with our luxury coach and experienced guide. Enjoy a morning break for hot tea / coffee and freshly made scones en route to your first stop.

Knock Shrine

Since the 2018 Visit of Pope Francis, Knock Shrine has attracted even more visitors and he is the latest Pontiff to visit Knock over the last one hundred years, following on from Pope John Paul II. Since the apparition of Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Joseph, John the Evangelist, angels and Jesus Christ in 1879, Knock Shrine has become a place of pilgrimage. While the original church still stands, the complex now incorporates five churches including the Basilica. Services at the Shrine include daily masses and confessions and anointing of the sick. A large range of religious goods are on sale in several shops. There are also numerous cafés and restaurants. Most pilgrims find themselves refreshed after their visit, both physically and spiritually, and we trust that this will be your experience on your day at the Shrine.
